

The 15th Longford Lecture 2016

What is Really Criminal about our Justice System?

By Michael Gove

Chaired by Jon Snow

Wednesday, November 16, 2016

6.30 pm at the Assembly Hall
of Church House, Westminster, Dean's Yard,
London SW1 3NZ

Organised by

Sponsored by Working with

The Frank Longford Charitable Trust

The Trust was established in 2002 by friends, family and admirers of Lord Longford (1905-2001) to celebrate his achievements and to further the goals he pursued in the fields of social and prison reform. The Trust arranges an annual memorial lecture, awards the Longford Prize, and for the past 12 years has funded more than 175 Longford Scholarships to support young ex-prisoners who wish to continue their rehabilitation through higher education.

The first Longford Lecture was delivered in 2002 by Cherie Booth QC. Subsequent speakers have included archbishops John Sentamu and Desmond Tutu, Baroness Hale of Richmond, Lord (Ian) Blair, Clive Stafford Smith, Sir Hugh Orde, Mary McAleese, Martha Lane Fox, Will Self, Bianca Jagger and Michael Palin. The Frank Longford Charitable Trust is a charity (no 1164701).

The Longford Trust would like to express thanks to all the benefactors supporting its work.

The Longford Prize

The annual Longford Prize is awarded before the annual Longford Lecture to an individual or organisation working in the area of penal or social reform, and showing outstanding qualities of humanity, courage, persistence and originality.

It will be sponsored by the McGrath Charitable Trust for the first time in 2016 and is now worth £5,000. The winner will be chosen from nominations made by the public. A panel of distinguished judges, chaired by former prison governor, Professor John Podmore, and including Lord Ramsbotham, Peter Dawson of the Prison Reform Trust and the journalist Mary Riddell, will study the nominations and choose a winner. For full details of how to make a nomination, please go to our website at longfordtrust.org/longford_prize.php. The closing date is 5pm on November 1, 2016. Nominations will be accepted by post or email. The Longford Prize is sponsored by:

The Longford Lecture 2016

I would like _____ tickets for the Longford Lecture

Name _____

Address _____

Telephone _____

Email _____

Access Requirements _____

Please send form to the
Longford Trust, PO Box
309, Woodbridge IP12 9BZ
with an SAE.

Tickets will be posted. The 2016 Lecture is open to all. Our work is supported entirely by voluntary donations.

Consequently, a contribution of £10 per ticket to cover costs would be gratefully received. Cheques should be made out to the Frank Longford Charitable Trust and enclosed with your booking form. You can also book tickets and make a donation (including Gift Aid) on our website: www.longfordtrust.org/funding

